Bubby's Birthday

Once there was a woman who turned Number. She has 4 Adjective children and their spouses and 15 grandkids. She lives in a Noun sized house where the weather is very temperature. She went to a family reunion to visit her kids, grandkids, and their spouses. When she was there she had Verb - Past Tense of story's to tell. She worked as a job and enjoyed it very much. She then met a man named name Scherer. They fell in love and got married. She had her first kids the year of year. They ended up being fraternal gender twins! Then in the year of year she had another daughter and in year she had a son. They lived a happy life in place place and lived on street name street name. street name. Each kid grew up Adjective and happy and went to Adjective colleges. And every year on Bubby's birthday they would have gift made for her (that she didn't like) and received a pair of gift. Many years later she was here celebrating her number birthday with her wonderful family.
