Once millions of plural standard of time ago when their parents birthed them they were like any other of their kind on the outside but on the inside they were Adjective they were Adjective, Adjective, more Adjective. Which happens Number out of larger number or more kids that they will turn into a "Proper Noun" which again is a Repeat Last Adjective, Repeat Last Adjective, more Repeat Last Adjective version of them. Their parents were drunk and high when they birthed them at their home or "Location". Their father took them to the child's Room after birth and left them in their Noun for plural standard of time on end without Noun or food as they can move about learning on their own their older Noun - Plural were all ready given to their parents abuse and . after a good several plural standard of time they remembered the child and they were Verb - Present ends in ING Noun - Plural, their own Part of Body, and stuff they could Verb - Base Form outside sense they made a whole in the wall getting tired of them being a Adjective parent.
