Stinky Fridge

Preposition, what is that smell?!" asked Name of EMA Staff, as she plugged her nose. "I know I am pregnant and smells can be harder to bear, but WOW!" "There is a nasty smell coming from the kitchen." replied Name of EMA Staff. "Well, you know what a slacker Tracy is. So who knows???" responded Name of EMA Staff, laughing. They all wondered what could be in the fridge that smelled so bad. Was it the Adjective Adjective _____ from before Christmas? No, _____ Name of EMA Staff ____ cleaned that out last month. Could it be the left over salad from the Fire Door lunch and learn? That had all but disappeared within a day. So, what was that sour STENCH???? "The fridge does get cleaned out regularly. I use Noun, a Noun, and even Noun if necessary." stated Tracy. "In fact the next cleaning day is coming up. I am planning on doing it February Twelve . I may even write a new Haiku about it!"
