I met Tory on a dark and [_____ Adjective _____] night. I had just finished up my job at [place of work], when a very [_____ Adjective _____] man walked through the door. The night passed by [adverb] and Tory was just a [_____ Adjective _____] person to be around! When he got up, I turned to my friend and exclaimed: "He's so [_____ Adjective _____]!" You'll imagine my surprise when my friend said that Tory said the same thing about me!

Ever since that night, Tory and I have been [verb ending in "ing"] constantly! I think he might be my future husband!
