Our First Day

On our first day in	Toronto, we'll o	heck in to our apa	rtment in	Toronto neighbourhood	. We'll leave our luggage on the	piece of furniture	and kiss for	length of time	beside our host's _	Adjective household item	Having work	xed up an appetite,	, we'll head off	toToronto restaurant	for dinner. When we arrive, the host	asks usAd	if we hav	e a reso. You t	ell him "no", and whe	en he hears your accent, he tells us he'll glad	dly accept a	British item in	exchange for l	etting us jump the quo	eue. Unfortunately, you're fresh out, so	we decide to ha	ave a walk around	Toronto locat	while we wai	t for a table. We see a(n Canadian animal	, and it com	nes right up to you	! You offer it a	Canadian food	and it eats it out of you hand. Soon, the hos	st calls me on m	y cell phone, and	We Verb - B	ase Form all the wa	y back to the restaurant You order	and I cop	by you. The meal v	was Adjectiv	. After dinner,	we settle the bill and say a cordial	Canadian slang	to our host on our	way oot the do	oor. We watch the sur	set over
