

The car crash

1. Adjective
2. Person One Last Name
3. Person One Last Name
4. Adjective
5. Noun
6. Noun
7. Person One First Name
8. Person Two First Name
9. Person Two Last Name
10. Person Three First Name
11. Person Three Last Name
12. Person Four First Name
13. Person Four Last Name
14. Verb - Past Participle
15. Adjective
16. Verb - Past Participle
17. Preposition Or Subordinating Conjunction

The car crash

It all started one _____ Adjective _____ day when me and _____ person one last name _____ person one last name _____ were driving and she commented on my _____ Adjective _____ Noun _____ Noun _____ but in doing so she did not look at the road! i felt sorry for the other people in the back of _____ person one first name _____ car. in the back sat _____ person two first name _____ perso two last name _____, _____ person three first name _____ person three last name _____ and a sad looking _____ person four first name _____ person four last name _____ who was _____ Verb - Past Participle _____ in the back of the car looking very _____ Adjective _____. robin walker died tragically as when naomi walker got distracted by my _____ Verb - Past Participle _____ Preposition or subordinating conjunction _____ case she crashed into a mini bus full of students being driven by charles eliot, anyway robin walker was flung forward into the gear stick and it pierced his spine. everybody else was alright except ellie jones had to get 8 brain surgeries and this changed her perception on reality and then david cross gained a fear of charles eliot and a mini bus full of students. me and naomi had only damage to our bank accounts though as we had to pay off the bill to fix charles eliot's apple which tragically broke during the whole incident. i carried on my life though as i myself have changed and am now everyones favourite survivor.