The day Donald Trump was elected president

Well, today was the day we all hoped would never happen... The day Donald Trump was elected president, and he won by _____Number_____ votes. The first thing he did was fire _____Celebrity_____, and he even hung a big _____ banner on the White House that said "Repeat Last Celebrity , you're fired, and _____Adjective_____." Of course _____A Friend_____, being the most ridiculous person I know, decided to post all over facebook about it, saying how "_____Adjective_____" it was and how excited he is that Donald is president. _____A Friend_____ wasn't having _____ that, though. Everyone knows Repeat Last A Friend doesn't put up with _____Adjective_____ posts like that on facebook, and you better believe the comments were pouring in. The first one is my personal favorite. "You are the biggest _____Animal_____ I have ever met. Get a life, you stupid _____Noun_____."

Let's fast forward a bit.

It's the day before Trump is sworn in, and he tells the media he has a "VERY _____Adjective_____ announcement" to make. Naturally, every TV show was interrupted for this, including my favorite show "The Real House _____Noun - Plural_____ of _____City_____", so I was not happy. This _____Mean Name_____ had the nerve to go on national television and say "America, the people who have been following me over these agonizing months are nothing but _____Noun - Plural_____. My entire campaign was simply a way of bringing forth the bigots, and most of all, the _____Noun - Plural_____. I will not be accepting this position as President of the United States, (nor the position as President of the _____Noun - Plural_____ _____A College or University_____, so stop asking) and I hope that you'll all turn your attention and _____Part of Body - Plural_____ to the "runner up", as I like to call her, Hillary."

I knew it! I always knew it! But no, everyone said "Shut up _____Your first name_____, don't be stupid, Trump wouldn't waste his precious _____Noun - Plural_____ and money doing that." Who's laughing now?? ME. My hatred for Donald Trump has turned into _____Emotion as a noun such as love_____. Thank you, Trump, for putting the spotlight on all of the _____Noun - Plural_____ in this country!
