Jewish Teen Philanthropy at Camp

It was a beautiful day at Camp _____, like all days at Camp _____ generally are. As I walked by the field, I saw a large group of campers debating passionately about what _____ they support.

"Hey, what's going on?" I asked.

"Oh, this is the teen _____ group!" they told me. "We're using _____ values to help us decide how we want to give away real _____ to help the causes and needs that are most important to us. Then we'll _____ about the organizations that deal with those causes and give them grants."

Wow, I thought to myself. This sounds like a great way to instill a _____ commitment to Jewish _____ in teens. Good thing I grabbed that full _____ Camp Philanthropy curriculum at Leaders Assembly!
