Callum's Canada

This is a recollection of the AOR F5 race at on the 15/12/14. It all started normally when First Name of a Person Smithycity99 started ace position on the He made it through the first few laps with no major to speak of, verb - Past Tense position and making some challenges on the Noun-Plural ahead. There were a few close calls with others Noun-Plural where they nearly spun off the track until, eventually, one did. The safety car was called out. Lots of people decided to pit for Noun - Plural. First Name of a Person was promoted to Race position behind the Safety Car. This very turned to disaster as coming out of turn, he hit the Safety Car.
There was a noise from his and everyone fell silent as he screamed, "Safety Car !" as the message that he has been flashed into the screen. When asked what happened, he burst into tears and told us all to, "frack off" because he is a That is the story of Verb - Present ends in ING Callum and it has become a story within the Motorsport world.
