My First Time in Australia

Last month I went to Australia for the first time in my life. I was so Adjective, all through the plane flight I was Verb - Present ends in ING and Verb - Present ends in ING like total Noun. The plane landed and I suddenly felt the heat seeping into my article of clothing. Immediately I regretted my decision, knowing it was a Adjective mistake. All around me I heard people saying "G'day" and I was sick of it already. One guy even asked me for a cheeky nando sesh. I don't even know if I have ever been so cheeky in my life. It made me feel like I wanted to live here forever. Flying QANTAS had Verb ending in ed me, and when I expressed this sentiment to the man next to me, and he said "HOW THE BLOODY HELL ARE YA? I SEE YOU'VE PLAYED KNIFEY-SPOONEY BEFORE!" I was shocked out of my Noun because I had simply tried to talk to him about QANTAS, and he'd replied in some Adjective foreign language I'd never heard? Knife-spooney? What does that mean? Walking out of Nandos I Adverb slipped on a Adjective silver bag. Later on I found out these are called "gooooon bags" and I was more perplexed with the country. I remember walking to the backpacker's motel in the time of day eg evening and I witnessed all these Australians riding their kangaroos home from work. This man standing by said to them "well haven't you done well!?" I had no idea what was going on. Turns out his name was King Larrykin Wallaroo. He was the king of australia. When he saw me and realised I was from country, he decided to give me a tour of the country. "This is the bloody best pub I've ever been to, I reckon you'd love it, bloody oath, struth, shrimps, barbie , get around it mate its grouse, the absolute bees knees if I ever knew any" From that moment I felt my whole world Verb - Base Form. My body started Verb - Present ends in ING and I couldn't control myself anymore.

In an excited yelp of _____ emotion eg joy _____ I said "OATTTTH " As we _____ Verb - Past Tense _____ all night, I
