The Castle Mystery

One day while _____ First Name of a Person _____ was walking in the _____ Location _____, she was playing that she was blind, she bumped into something _____ Adjective _____. As she opened her eyes she saw that she was standing in front of a castle made out of pure gold studded with rare jewels and climbing spirally up the outside of the castle was the most beautiful _____ Adjective _____ and _____ Adjective _____ roses. As I stood there and looked at it awe struck I heard a voice say "Come in! Come in!" so I took a few careful steps toward the doorway and when I looked in I saw a _____ important person _____. My first question was "how did you get such _____ Adjective _____ roses?" The _____ same important person _____ answered with a smile " Well one day as I was taking my daily walk, I met a man Named Mr. _____ First Name of a Person _____ last name of a person _____ and he gave me some growers." "When I got home I mixed it with some whiskey and poured some of the mixture on my roses, and that is how I got my _____ Adjective _____ roses."
