Letter to Mom and Jay

March 20th, 2016

Dear Mom and Jay,

Thank you for _____Verb_____ to the student-led conference. This letter is to tell you what my _____Adjective_____ day of school is like. I will also tell you about what I want to fix and what my goals are for the rest of the school _____Unit of Time_____.

In the mornings _____First Name of a Person_____, _____First Name of a Person_____ and I walk around the school until the bell rings. Since the period rotation is _____Number_____, I have options _____Adjective_____. On an A-day I have Learner's Driver's Education, then I have art class. On a B-day I have gym class, then drama. In Learner's Driver's Education, we are learning the basics on how to _____Adjective_____. In art class, we have been working on ceiling tiles and masks made out of _____Art Supply_____. In gym class, we are doing cross country _____Verb_____ and _____Adjective_____ testing. In drama, we are _____Verb_____ on a play called General Valley Hospital.

I will be performing it tonight. Since term two will be ending very soon, I won't have these options.

After we have options we have our core classes. We have social studies _____Adverb_____, then we have science, then it's lunch, At lunch time, my _____Noun - Plural_____ and I go and eat in either the classroom or the art room, depending on what day it is. After lunch, we go outside or work on our _____Noun - Plural_____ in the art room. Once the bell rings to come inside we have reading period which is a _____Adjective_____ _____Adjective_____ amount of time to read. After reading period we have math and la.

My goals this year are to get my grade in social up to an A and to have better grammar and vocabulary. I will achieve these by trying my very _____Adjective_____ and putting as much effort as I can. Thank you for _____Verb_____ my letter and I hope you have a good night.

_____Adjective_____, Abby
