All About Sweden Weddings

On day, there was a Swedish woman her name was First Name of a Person. First Name of a Person was getting married to a Swedish man named First Name of a Person. She asked her father to tell her how Swedish Event work so, he told her. The first thing he said was that I don't get to walk you down the aisle the person your marring get to walk you down the aisle because we feel like it is rude to pass a woman from one man to the other. Next he said that the Officiant doesn't say you may Verb - Base Form the bride or you may Verb - Base Form insted you go up to the men and they line up and you Verb - Base Form them but did I not mention that your husband leaves the room and then it goes the other way around. Lastly he said that you take your Event pictures a couple hours before the Event.
