Ole died. So Lena went to the Adjective paper to put a notice in the obituaries. The gentleman at the counter, after offering his condolences, asked Lena what she would like to say about Ole.

Lena replied, "You just put 'Ole died'."

The gentleman, somewhat perplexed, said, "That's Noun? Just 'Ole died?' Surely, there must be Verb - Base Form more you'd like to say about Ole. If its money you're concerned about, the first five words are free. We must say something more."

So Lena pondered for a few minutes and finally said, "O.K. You put 'Ole died. Boat for sale.'"
