

You Never See Me Coming

1. Proper Noun
2. Noun
3. Noun - Plural
4. Noun - Plural
5. Noun - Plural
6. Noun - Plural
7. Noun - Plural
8. Noun - Plural
9. Noun
10. Noun - Plural
11. Noun
12. Noun
13. Proper Noun
14. Noun
15. Proper Noun
16. Noun - Plural

You Never See Me Coming

_____ Proper Noun ran down the street. The _____ Noun echoed in her head and she clutched her phone in her hand. They knew where she was those _____ Noun - Plural. They were once friends but now _____ Noun - Plural. _____ Noun - Plural. If she wasn't running she would scoff at the noun. Five years they were all close, but now they turned on her. She had no idea _____ Noun - Plural but they hold a grudge against her. _____ Noun - Plural cracked behind her and her legs quickened. One of them cried out behind her and snatched one of her _____ Noun - Plural.

_____ Noun escaped her _____ Noun - Plural as she collided with the ground, scrambling away from her old friend that latched onto her _____ Noun, crawling forth. Her friend pulled back her head and pressed something cool against her neck. But it was gone before her blood could be spilled. Another threw a _____ Noun into the girl's head. _____ Proper Noun screamed as another _____ Noun headed straight for her own head but it missed. _____ Proper Noun _____ Noun - Plural closed in around her, snarling and laughing at her.

She still did not know why.