Spring Break Trip

I went on a trip to Location with my friends over season Break. One morning, the girls decided to Verb - Base Form the guys by shooting Noun - Plural into their cabin. This really made them mood sad happy mad etc, as one of the guys had just finished sweeping out Noun - Plural. The guys Verb - Past Tense to have revenge on the girls with an even Adjective prank. That evening, when everyone was away from the Noun - Plural, Number guys went into the girls' building and took off some of the Noun - Plural from the bunk beds, then put the Repeat Last Noun - Plural on the roof of their Repeat Last building. The girls had no idea where the Repeat Last Noun - Plural were, until their leader texted the guys' leader asking where they went. The guys had to go get them off of the Noun. Later on, one of the guys from my cabin, First Name of a Person, decided to go into the girls' Repeat Last building and take their shampoo Noun - Plural, empty them out, and put Noun into the bottles. It wasn't just any Repeat Last Noun, it was Repeat Last Noun that came from the drains of the Adjective community nearby. The girls never discovered that the guy did this, so they have drainage Adjective shampoo now. The Noun was really fun, and I can't wait to go it again next year.
