The Mysterious Jelly

It was a normal day. I was playing _____ Video Game when my _____ Noun ran out of battery just when I was about to collect some _____ Treasures in Video Game. I carry my _____ Same noun out of my bedroom to the charger, when I see something red and disgusting on the floor. I put my _____ Same noun on the charger, and look _____ Adverb at it. I touch it _____ Adverb with one _____ Body part, and it wobbles like jelly. I think it IS jelly. I stand up and _____ Verb - Base Form to the pantry, where the _____ Noun - Plural are. I get one, and go to pick it up, when the jelly wobbles by itself. I stare at it. It wobbles and grows larger and larger! I begin to wonder why a jelly is sitting on the _____ Noun, but most certainly _____ Verb - Present ends in ING by itself. I look around. Nobody's home. I have to deal with this myself.

I _____ Verb - Base Form, crouch down, and I go to pick up the piece of jelly when it jumps up and grows HUGE! It roars and looks down at me. Why is it always me who gets the completely odd _____ Noun - Plural? "GET OUT!" it yells. "But this is my _____ Noun..." I begin to say, and it roars again. It moves towards me, and the only chance I have is to _____ Verb - Base Form! It chases me up the hall and corners me, so I chase it and corner it. We chase and corner eachother for ages, until the jelly returns to the normal blob of jelly it _____ Adverb was.

I always sit and _____ Verb - Base Form what happened today.
