The Mystery of the Ants

There are ants in my pocket from verb-Present ends in ING on the Noan. Proper Noan woke up on the floor this Noan, but I have no clue how I got here. I reached into my pocket to grab my Noan, but to my surprise I grabbed a handful of Noan-Plural! They must have crawled in while I was asleep. The question is, why am I here? I am in my basement, for some odd reason, and next to me lay an apple Noan. Adverb I Verb-Past Tense hungry after my little Adjective last night. Suddenly, I Verb-Base Form footsteps coming down the stairs. Who else could it be but Audrey? She walks in the basement and asks me if I'm okay. I say, "Sure, but why am I lying on my basement floor?" Audrey takes a look around, then she proceeds to run upstairs with a bloodcurdling scream.
