Tuesday at North School

The 4th graders had just loaded onto the _____ Adjective busses and were off on a _____ Adjective adventure.

Meanwhile, back at North School, things were a little _____ Adjective. At morning drop-off, parents pulled up in _____ Noun - Plural and the students were all wearing _____ Noun - Plural on their _____ Part of Body. The principals were shocked! When the morning bell rang it made a sound like _____ crazy sound and the students all started to laugh! When it was time for recess, an announcement told all students that they would be allowed to _____ extreme sport on the playground. Later that day as the students headed up to the MPR for lunch, they were surprised to see _____ Fast Food restaurant King was delivering the hot lunch. Once again, the kids were completely shocked!!! Not only that, but for dessert everyone got a _____ favorite dessert cream! It was Specialist time. In the library, Mrs. Morgan had the day off and _____ celebrity was reading to all the students! In music, Ms. Miller was missing, and _____ famous musician was leading the class! And for P.E., _____ famous athlete was assisting Mrs. Devine with _____ sport skills. As if the day wasn't crazy enough, all parents were _____ Number minutes late for pick up that day! Luckily, back in Yosemite, the North 4th Graders were having a great time, and hoping not to see any _____ Animal (plural) in their cabins!
