

Weddig

1. Place
2. Place
3. Item
4. Item
5. Item
6. Item
7. Item
8. Exclamation
9. -----
10. -----
11. -----
12. -----
13. -----
14. -----
15. Place
16. -----
17. Venue
18. Venue
19. Venue
20. -----
21. -----
22. -----
23. -----

24. -----

25. -----

26. -----

27. -----

28. -----

29. -----

30. -----

31. -----

32. -----

33. -----

34. -----

35. -----

36. -----

37. -----

38. -----

39. -----

40. -----

41. Venue

42. Place

43. Place

44. Activity

45. Activity

46. Place

47. Activity

48. Activity

- 49. Place
- 50. Place
- 51. Place
- 52. Place
- 53. -----
- 54. -----
- 55. -----
- 56. -----
- 57. -----
- 58. -----
- 59. -----

Weddig

Jo and Amie's first date was in _____. They met at _____ train station. As Jo walked down the stairs clutching her _____ of _____ in a _____ _____, Amie thought "_____"! Jo's first words to Amie were "_____
_____?"

Neither Amie no Jo knew where they were going in _____place_____, and they got a little bit _____.

They finally settled on an _____venue_____ _____venue_____/ _____venue_____, where they consumed a number of _____ of _____. Amie attempted to woo Jo by showing her _____ _____.

_____. It seemed to work, and Jo seemed to be edging closer and closer as time went by. Jo decided to go to the toilets so she could text her friend and tell her she didn't need that get out clause. Amie used this time to _____.

_____.

Amie and Jo were both a little bit drunk now. They decided to go and get some food at venue. Jo's best woman Jackie would later tell Jo that this was a poor choice of restaurant for a first date!

Jo and Amie's second date was the following week. They met at the _____ place _____ place because Jo wanted to go _____ activity _____. Jo lost interest in _____ activity _____ quickly and so they decided to go to the _____ place _____.

to _____ activity _____. Jo and Amie continued enjoy each other's company and their relationship developed.

In 2014 Jo decided that she was going to propose. She took Amie to the _____ place _____, where she proposed to her at _____ place _____. After Jo had collapsed in to fits of hysterical laughter she managed to pop the question. Amie's response was " _____ !"