

The Test

1. Adverb
-

The Test

The Howard family [          Adverb          ] got in their [noun] to drive down to San Antonio. Ethan was testing for his black belt in [name of sport]. He would have to [verb], [verb], and [verb]. It would be a very [adjective] examination of his [noun] skills.

When they arrived at the [noun] there were [adjective] people all around. [Exclamation] said Eamon when he saw all the [plural nouns] preparing to test. Ethan prepared by [adverb] stretching his muscles. He was ready to [verb].

Ethan preformed his [adjective] form for the [plural noun]. He broke all his [plural noun] on the first try. His [adjective] sparring skills showed his [number] hours of training. When he finished his test he was awarded with a [color] [article of clothing] that he could wear with pride. This had been a very [adjective] event and everyone was proud of him!