kendall

Once upon a time, there was a boy named Kendall. He was only one year old. Kendall was not Adjective because he didn't get his normal Noun. So, he decided to leave home. As he Verb - Past Tense along the sidewalk, he found a Noun. It was 10 times Adjective than him! Then, Kendall looked for a Noun to take care of the Noun. He was a very Adjective one year old. Next, Kendall finds a Noun named Christian. Christian begins to take care of Kendall and the Noun. He takes them home for Noun that night and allows them to Verb - Base Form in his Noun.

Soon, Kendall's parents Verb - Present ends in S that he is missing. They call the Noun - Plural. The Noun - Plural search all over, and they finally Verb - Past Tense Kendall with Christian. The parents get very Adjective because Kendall has a Noun. Kendall had to go back with his parents, but before he left, he gave Noun to Christian and the Noun.
