A day of ____opping!

On a busy day in December, I _____ my arms up on the _____ of my car and watched the _____ go in and out of the mall. I had been _____ around from place to place _____ all day, and was ready to _____ down on the nearest chair to rest. But I couldn't _____ yet. The Holidays were coming up, and I still needed to find the _____ gifts for all of the people on my list. My dad was a _____, and I knew he would want a new _____ of the latest crime-solving mystery. My mom loved to play board games, and there was a new version of _____ that I knew she would love. My brother was _____ a new puppy, so I planned to buy him a dog bone. My nephew loved sweets, so I thought some _____ and caramel _____ might make him happy. My niece was feeling sad because she had to _____ out of an upcoming marathon due to a knee operation, so I thought I'd find something for her in her favorite store, Hot _____. I dragged myself into the store and got ready to spend my money!
