A day of __opping!

On a busy day in December, I verb-Part Tense my arms up on the Nom of my car and watched the Nom-Paral go in and out of the mall. I had been verb-Parant Tense around from place to place Adjustive all day, and was ready to verb down on the nearest chair to rest. But I couldn't verb yet. The Holidays were coming up, and I still needed to find the Adjustive gifts for all of the people on my list. My dad was a Nom, and I knew he would want a new Nom of the latest crime-solving mystery. My mom loved to play board games, and there was a new version of Proper Nom that I knew she would love. My brother was Verb-Present Tense a new puppy, so I planned to buy him a dog bone. My nephew loved sweets, so I thought some Nom-Present Tense and caramel Nom might make him happy. My niece was feeling sad because she had to Verb out of an upcoming marathon due to a knee operation, so I thought I'd find something for her in her favorite store, Hot Proper Nom. I dragged myself into the store and got ready to spend my money!
