Fanasty World (Courtyard of Maddness)

Adam was sitting under a tree reading a _____Noun_____about cooking, since he wasn't the best cook. Then half way through he heard Dirick yelling something. Adam looked up from his book and saw him being chased by Tim. Adam couldn't understand the _____Adjective_____things Dirick was yelling, but he did know Rick had done something to make Tim mad again. Adam stood and let his one wing stretch outward before he took flight. When he was up high enough he looked down and saw the _____Adjective_____area of the courtyard. He saw Tim with his large gorilla like hands chasing Rick. He saw Deadmanjon sitting in the graveyard alone, since he couldn't leave. Being _____Adjective_____with everyone again thought Adam. Adam looked over and saw Dman, Nia, and Calvin talking with one another. _____Adjective_____as always Calvin, thought Adam. Adam began to fly down slowly. As he landed he took one step to the right to avoid running into the _____Adjective_____Dirick who ran face first into the tree that they we by. The so called _____Adjective_____Dirick with all his power had ran face first into tree and was knocked out cold by it. Seconds later Tim came up and grabbed Dirick by his collar and began shaking him. Tim's loud and _____Adjective_____voice kept asking Dirick why he had set his chair on fire when he was sitting on it. Adam shook his head walked inside the house. When he got inside he saw Nia cooking dinner. He hind the cooking book behind him. He looked out the window and saw Calvin and Jon talking. Adam knew they were talking about the changes that will come to the courtyard. Adam went back to looking around he house and then asked Nia where her husband, D was at. She said he is here, but _____Adjective_____. Adam sighed and then looked up to see D hanging on to a support beam for dear life. Adam shook his head again and began to walk upstairs. He went into his room and closed the door behind him. He then heard a loud crash and just knew it was the _____Adjective_____D who had fell to the ground. Adam crashed into his bed which creaked beneath him. He began to think of the changes that will come soon. He could live with it, but he would feel like a pariah to them since he had lived here longer then anyone besides the old man who use to own the place. He then remembered the thing the old man told him before he passed away, "The world will change and we will change the way we do things, but we will never truly change deep down."; Adam closed his eyes and ran the words through his head again.

Â "What a wonderful world we will live in soon,"; said Adam to himself "I wish you could see it old man.";.
