A Day In The Life of Principal Kelly Chow

Good afternoon. My name is Kelly Chow and I am the of Capitol Hill Elementary school.
This morning I verb - Past Tense in my mode of transportation and verb - Past Tense to school. On my way, I stopped at fine dining restaurant to grab a beverage Upon my arrival, said "Good Morning" to staff member and went into my office. I put my beverage on my desk and turned on my computer to check my emails had emailed me to say she would be late as she had misplaced her I started to panic, wondering who would watch over her class of large number wild animal plural ? I called current politician current politician to help out.
After a hectic morning it was finally time for lunch. I walked into the staff room to findstaff member eating my right under my nose! Good thing I have an emergency stash of type of candy in my desk! To finish the day we had guest speakers and dead historical figure speak to the school about the dangers of students were thrilled to come away with such a life skill. As I ring the 2:47 bell to end the day I think to myself
"Wow! What an interesting day! I sure hope Inman is just as exciting as Capitol Hill!"
