

A Day in the Life of Ariel

1. Adjective
-

A Day in the Life of Ariel

It's another [adjective] day. After enjoying some [_____ Adjective _____] reading material in the bathroom where he learned about [plural noun], Ariel slips on his [color] shirt, [adjective] pants, and [adjective] shoes. (He no longer wears his bowling shoes.) He hops into his Odyssey vehicle (which he likes to call "[illy pet name]" and it slightly reminds him of his Shagon Wagon). He drops the kids off at school and then [traveling verb ending in s] to Lander [schooling level] for [species], because he runs the place. At work, he [verb ending in s], [verb ending in s] [plural noun], and [verb ending in s]. As the official director of student [abstract noun], he has so much to [verb]. For the most part, he interacts with Rabbi Sacks, [name of person], and [name of person]. After a long day, he comes home to a delicious home-cooked dinner made by Shani. He especially likes to eat [food item], and he [verb ending in s] a lot of mayo on it for best results. He hums "Hegiyah Zeman" and helps himself to [an amount] of ices. He listens to his [large number of voicemails] on his very [adjective] phone, checks on his men's club balance to make sure it's not too [adjective], [verb ending in s] his Pharaoh costume, exchanges the toy [animal] with the upstairs neighbors and starts to put the kids to bed, where he falls asleep before they do. It's been a long day for Super Abba, and he has managed to [verb] a lot.

Ariel, though it may have taken you [number] years to complete graduate school, we congratulate you on this [adjective] milestone. We also [verb] you a happy Lag Ha-Birthday and many more. And now, let's all sing [famous song] together.

