Kitesailing! - Sky High Adventure

Today is going to be the most _____Adjective_____ day I've had in ages.

I'm going to (the) _____Place_____ with my friend _____Female Name_____ to _____Verb - Base Form_____ a kite - and by _____Same Verb - Base Form_____, I mean _____Adverb_____ _____Same Verb but ending in ING_____. We're going to take turns being _____Attachment Verb - Past Tense_____ to the kite. Our kite flying skills are _____Adjective_____, so there shouldn't be anything to _____Verb - Base Form_____ about. We're already at (the) _____Same Place_____, and the wind is fast and _____Adjective_____. But it's also _____Season_____, so we don't have to worry about our _____Part of Body - Plural_____ dropping off when we are in mid-air. It's my turn first.

Our kite is pretty _____Adjective_____, which is perfect for me since I have really long _____Part of Body - Plural_____ and _____Part of Body - Plural_____. _____Same Female Name_____ helps _____Same Attachment but Base Form_____ me on the kite.

My _____Part of Body - Plural_____ are _____Same Attachment but Past Tense_____ across the horizontal _____Noun_____ in the middle, and the rest of my body is _____Same Attachment but Past Tense_____ along the huge vertical _____Noun_____. I look like _____Person_____ on the _____Noun_____.

I give _____Same Female Name_____ the _____Verb - Base Form_____ signal, and I watch her _____Verb - Base Form_____ backwards. The wind picks the kite - and me - up into the air.

I watch as _____Same Female Name_____ (and everything else around her) _____Verb - Base Form_____ as I move up. The wind feels _____Adjective_____ against my _____Part of Body_____.

The kite continues _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____ its way up through the air. While I'm up, I check the sky for little _____Noun - Plural_____ that we could smash _____Part of Body - Plural_____ with. But it seems too _____Adjective_____ for them.

Perfect!

But moving my _____Part of Body_____ was a bad thing. I hear one of my _____Part of Body_____ _____Noun - Plural_____ snap as I move my _____Same Part of Body_____ back into its _____Adjective_____ position. My body _____Same Noun - Plural but Singular_____ snaps as well! The rest of the _____Same Noun - Plural_____ around me continue snapping, until my only support is the worn-out _____Noun_____ that is around me as well as the kite _____Noun - Plural_____. My _____Part of Body_____ and _____Part of Body - Plural_____ are dangling down. I feel as I become _____Adjective Past Tense Eg Faster Tighter etc_____ and _____Adjective Past Tense Eg Faster Tighter etc_____ until.....
