Stephanie and Mark, A Love Story

Once upon a time, there was a Noun named Stephanie and a Noun named Mark. They attended Place University but didn't get to know each other until they Verb - Past Tense in Place . And that is where their love story Verb - Present ends in S . Stephanie and Mark discovered they had mutual interests in Noun , studying Adjective Noun and Verb - Present ends in ING . After Number years together and many Adjective experiences shared, Mark decided to propose. Stephanie said, " Exclamation !" which brings us to today. We wish them much Noun and Noun as they begin their married life together. We'd also like to share some advice for the Adjective couple. Stephanie, you should always Verb - Base Form Mark's Noun , and Mark, you should always Verb - Base Form Stephanie's Noun . Don't forget to Verb - Base Form before you go to bed every night and clean up after each other. Congratulations on your marriage and Adjective - Ends in EST wishes! We love you!
