My First Job

My first job was being a Noun in a Adjective store. My Noun was really nice and the customers were Adjective. I became really Adjective at my job. Then an Adjective manager named Dell came and took my Adjective job. He ran the store very strictly. He Verb - Past Tense the staff to work Adjective hours and to come in on their days off. One day, I was Verb - Past Tense to come in on one of my days off. I told the Adjective manager I could not, but he would not listen. So I decided to look for a better job with a Adjective Noun like my old one. I found a Adjective job at a large Adjective store near my house. That is how my first job Verb - Past Tense.
