Twas The Night Before Christmas

In hopes that St Nicholas soon would be there.

The children were Verb - Past Tense all snug in their beds,

While visions of plural food danced in their heads.

And mamma in her 'kerchief, and I in my cap,

Had just settled our plural body part for a long winter's nap.

When out on the lawn there arose such a clatter,

I sprang from the Noun to see what was the matter.

Away to the window I flew like a flash,

Tore open the Noun - Plural and threw up the sash.

The Noun on the breast of the new-fallen snow

Gave the lustre of mid-day to objects below.

When, what to my Verb - Present ends in ING plural body part should appear,

But

a Adjective sleigh, and eight Adjective reindeer.

With a Adjective old driver, so Adverb and quick,

To the top of the porch! to the top of the wall!

Now Verb - Base Form away! same verb away! same verb away all!"

As Adjective leaves that before the wild hurricane fly,

When they meet with an obstacle, mount to the sky.

So up to the house-top the coursers they flew,

With the sleigh full of Noun - Plural, and St Nicholas too.

And then, in a Verb - Present ends in ING, I heard on the roof

The Verb - Present ends in ING and Verb - Present ends in ING of each little hoof.
