The Worst Day Ever!

I woke up this morning at Mount Hermon feeling (_____Adjective_____) and I just knew today was going to be the worst day ever! I knew this because right when I got out of bed, I stepped on a (_____Noun_____). After that, (family member) cut in front of me in the buffet line and took the last (food). I was so (emotion)! I then went to sign up for (free time activity) but everything was cancelled because there was a news report of a (natural disaster) hitting Mount Hermon that afternoon. Ah (animal) fart! I was so mad! So I decided to head to the fountain for a (flavor of ice cream) milkshake. The problem was, there was a hole in my cup so it spilled all over my (body part) and I had to go back to my cabin to put on a clean (type of clothes). When I got to my cabin, a (animal) was sleeping in my bed and the smell of (noun) filled my nose. It was (emotion)! If that't not bad enough , when I went to go tell my parents about the (same animal) in my bed, I discovered that it was Train Day and they would be gone until dinner time! What the (vegetable) is going on?! In order to pass the time, I decided to browse the bookshop. I found a book about (famous person)'s life called "(verb ending in -ing) of the Soul" and started reading it. As I read in the corner of the bookshop, I soon drifted off into sleep. I was woken up by a small child poking me in the (body part)! "You missed dinner!" the child said. Oh (farm animal) nuggets! I raced to dinner only to find the (natural disaster) had destroyed the Dining Hall and all that remained was a pile of (plural food item). Thankfully, everyone was safe at the (location at Mount Hermon) but when I found my family, the first thing they said to me was, "(your name)! Wake up! It's time for breakfast!" Great (color) (animal)! That was the worst day ever!
