

Jason the Sheep

1. Adverb
2. Noun - Plural

Jason the Sheep

[Jason] the goat had _____ Adverb arrived at his new heifer family and had noticed they were all very nice and [stormy]. He had _____ Noun - Plural noticed another very strange looking goat. This animal was also from heifer, but was fluffy and [eloquent] like a big [mauve] cotton ball. That was odd, thought the goat as he stood on the [gym] and watched the strange fluffy goat. Finally, the [precious] animal looked over at [Jason]. "What kind of sheep are you?"