The Honeymoon

After the wedding festivities, Rita and Angelica felt Adjective. So much work! So much Verb - Present ends in ING. Good thing honeymoons are a thing! They got out their Noun - Plural! Rita packed 20 Noun - Plural and Angelica kept it simple, packing only her Noun and her best Noun.
They hopped the Transportation and went to the airport. Exclamation! Their flight to Location was on time! It was a miracle! And they were in Zone 1. Exclamation! After a Length of Time, Adjective flight they arrived feeling Adjective. They checked in to their Accommodation, unpacked and immediately hit the Location. Everyday was Adjective, frolicking in the Location and gazing into eachothers' Body Part-Plural. After Length of Time they had to return to their Adjective home. But they would always have the memory of their Adjective honeymoon!
