One Adjective evening a young princess put on her bonnet and clogs, and went Particle to take a walk by herself in a wood; and when she came to a cool spring of water with a rose in the middle of it, Pronoun sat herself down to Verb a while. Now she had a Adjective ball in her hand, which was her favourite plaything; and she was always tossing it up into the air, and catching it again as it fell.

After a time she threw it up so high that she missed catching it as it fell; and the ball bounded away, and rolled along on the ground, until at last it fell down into the spring. The princess looked into the spring Preposition or subordinating conjunction her ball, but it was very deep, so deep that she could not see the bottom of it. She began to cry, and Verb - Past Tense, 'Alas! if I could only get my ball again, I would give all my fine clothes and jewels, and everything that I have in the world.'

Whilst Verb - Present Tense was speaking, a frog put its head Determiner of the water, and said, 'Princess, why do you weep so bitterly?'

'Alas!' said she, 'what Pronoun you do for me, you nasty frog? My golden ball has fallen into the spring.'

The frog said, Adverb do not want your pearls, and jewels, and fine clothes; but if you will love me, and let me live with you Coordinating conjunction eat from off your Adjective plate, and sleep on your bed, will bring you your ball again.'

I
