The Perfect Honeymoon

For their honeymoon, the bride and groom are going to Location. They picked this location because it is so Adjective and Adjective. They are staying in a Adjective Noun which has an all-inclusive Noun toy shop. The area is Verb - Past Tense with many Noun - Plural reflecting the Adjective local culture. The food is supposed to be very Adjective. We also expect they will spend a lot of time in their room and Verb - Present ends in ING. They will probably Verb on the Noun and verb at Noun. Lots of Verb - Present ends in ING all the time. The bride will probably wear a Adjective Adjective Adjective and call the groom Proper Noun sometimes. Maybe she'll even get a Noun and verb him with it. We all know he's into that sort of thing. He'll probably shout Exclamation and then tell the bride was a Adjective Noun she is. So, let's hook her up with everything she'll need to have a Adjective honeymoon with lots and lots of Adjective Proper Noun - Plural.
