Spray-Paint

I once went outside to _____ Verb - Base Form my sister and her _____ Noun _____ Verb - Present ends in ING empty cans of spraypaint with an ax. Being a typical _____ Adjective older brother, I walked up to them and said, "No, no. You're doing it all wrong." I, without looking, grabbed a _____ Adjective can of spraypaint and put it on the ground. I then _____ Verb - Past Tense to my sister and said, "Stand back and watch a professional." I hit the can of spraypaint with an ax and immediately became _____ Verb - Past Tense in a cloud of silver paint. I _____ Adverb emerged from the cloud and said, "uhhhhh....does this stuff come off?" Amid my sister's laughter I then heard the little _____ Noun next door say, "Hey, hey! Mr. _____ Proper Noun! Can I get your autograph!?!"
