

The Mysterious Necklace

1. Proper Noun _____
2. Past Tense Action Verb _____
3. Common Noun _____
4. Past Tense Action Verb _____
5. Adjective _____
6. Past Tense Action Verb _____
7. Past Tense Action Verb _____
8. Past Tense Action Verb _____
9. Same Past Tense Action Verb From Before _____
10. Same Past Tense Action Verb From Before _____
11. Possessive Noun _____
12. Comparative Adjective _____
13. Proper Noun From Beginning _____
14. Future Tense Verb _____
15. Common Noun _____
16. Superlative Adjective _____

The Mysterious Necklace

Once upon a time, _____ Proper Noun _____ past tense action verb _____ her _____ common noun _____ and _____ past _____ tense action verb _____ a necklace that looked _____ Adjective _____) It _____ past tense action verb _____ (past tense action verb) and _____ past tense action verb _____). She _____ past tense action verb _____ it in the light, and in the dark. Both times it _____ same past tense action verb from before _____ and _____ same past tense action verb from before _____). She never saw it before and didn't know how it got there. She then went to her sister to ask because it was better than asking her parents, _____ possessive noun _____ room, and asked her, because asking her sister was _____ comparative adjective _____ than asking her parents. She didn't know where it came from either but pointed out a message on the back that read in small letters, "I grant you with this special, and powerful necklace." "DANGER: Don't use this selfishly."

_____ proper noun from begining _____ was very confused. She then was curious. She said to the mysterious necklace, "Make me disappear!" And she disappeared forever, and was never seen again. Her mom still thinks she will _____ future tense verb _____ back. Some think she got abducted by _____ common noun _____ some think she was kidnapped, but only she will know what actually happened. She wasn't the _____ superlative adjective _____ knife in the drawer.