Dear Trevor,

Today at camp, I met a boy named Hadyn. He seemed like a really Adjective kid so I asked him to be friends. So when we met he seemed really Adjective but really nice. When we got to know each other, he told me about his past and things he did in the past. He told me that he really used to like to play sports and stuff like that but his favorite thing to do was ride ATV's and listen to music. He told me that his favorite song was a song called, "Closer" by The Chainsmokers. It seems like everybody likes that song now. He told me things like his favorite foods, things to do, and everything else that he liked.
