For Shira

Once upon a time there were _____Adjective_____ _____Adjective_____ unaffiliated Jews and everyone was _____Proper Noun_____ _____Preposition or subordinating conjunction_____ _____Preposition or subordinating conjunction_____ about them. One of them, by the name of Michael Steinhardt, had an _____Adjective_____ employee who he thought could help solve this problem. And boy was he right?! NUMBER years ago, Shira started her _____Adjective_____ and _____Adjective_____ Jewish journey at Birthright Israel. Luckily, we kept her longer than the trip lasts and she's lived through quite a lot here. From staff and board member changes, to _____Verb_____ a team dedicated to strategy and initiatives, _____Adjective_____ partnerships, _____Proper Noun_____ convoluted proposals and grants serving significant funders and federations around the _____Proper Noun_____, all of which has contributed more than _____Proper Noun_____ annually to our campaign. No conversation or challenge was too ADJECTIVE for Shira _____to_____ _____Verb_____. She was always ready with a _____Proper Noun_____ nobody thought of, a strategic NOUN, or a creative way to approach an opportunity. Her commitment exceeds any other - just VERB her about her blackberry messaging birthing story, GERUND VERB on the floor of a private plane, or _____Proper Noun_____ _____Proper Noun_____ blindfolded down a mountain in Israel. We will miss her NOUN and NOUN and enthusiasm for the _____Adjective_____ work we do every day for Israel and the Jewish people.
