

Jack and the Bear

1. Proper Noun - Plural
-

Jack and the Bear

Jack running through the woods with a hot on his tail! He getting close to his house but the was faster than he was. He had to change his plan. He then began to into thick brush that he thought the bear couldn't make it through dew to his overwhelming size. However he was wrong. The tore right through the brush without a problem. Ten just the was almost on top him he cried, "!!!" This Proper Noun - Plural the , causing him to turn and full speed into a tree knocking himself out cold. Jack stood there in disbelief and then home to tell the story his family.