When I Grow Up!

When I was in elementary school I wanted to be a Noun. When I was in jr. high I wanted to be a Adjective. Now that I am in high school I just want to be a Noun. College is around the corner and I feel so Adjective. If I could tell my jr. high self anything it would be to Verb Adverb.

Upward Bound has taught me to Verb, Noun my time and be present. My friends tell me that in college I will have Noun. My parents tell me that in college they expect me to be Adjective.

Upward Bound tells me that in college I need to Verb. I can't wait to finish high school and start college, but I understand that I must stay on task and do my Adjective - Superlative.
