Riding Lesson

My first riding lesson was at Stables. The instructor introduced me to my mount whose name was on his back I felt The instructor started us on the lunge line. Suddenly, a plastic blag blew across the corner of the ring spooked and started verb - Present Tense I grabbed onto his and held on for dear life. He jumped over the and ran back to the barn. I stayed or until the last moment when I fall off into a pile of The instructor came running up and asked if I was okay. I said, "! I've never felt so!"
