Cars

One day, Ricky Bobby's car broke down. He called me and asked if I was _____ Adjective _____ on his car problem.

So I called Jon and together went to go see what the problem was and it was extravagant.

Jon decides to go get a new motor while Bobby _____ Verb _____ about his day. Meanwhile I have this tome on how get this vast 8.0L V10 motor out. So _____ Adjective _____ Bobby was but I ignored him and continued with my job.

Bobby was going _____ Adjective _____.

Jon came back with a _____ Noun _____ engine. But that new 8.0L V10 was just a few inches too big. I mentioned to Jon that the motor was exorbitant but what did he say? So? So we spend the next few weeks modifying the car and the motor itself. It became clear that the motor still didn't fit and we had more _____ Verb _____ to do. Jon thought I was _____ Noun _____ but when it come to this kind of stuff I'm totally _____ Noun _____ about it.

Just a few minutes after the _____ Verb _____ complaining Bobby!! He yelled that he wants the motor at a _____ Noun _____ Noun _____. If we're not _____ Verb _____ enough we might not be able to get it close enough. So it's about another six hours of fine tuning and performance. "Man my mom could cook a better motor than that!!"

; said whiney Bobby. Yeah well your moms the worst cook and the both of us thought the same. Whew!! Alright that should about good enough! Alright here's your pay Jon and Adam.

The

day after Ricky yet again called me saying he wrecked. What are you trying to do street race? Cause your obviously pretty baddd.
