how to clean your room

In order to clean your room you need a Adjective Noun. Then you need a bed that has storage space under neith it. First if you have Verb - Present ends in S on the ground take all the toys and shove them under your bed and if you have extra room under your bed you need to put some other object that was on the ground under neith your bed. Then if you have Proper Noun on Noun - Plural Noun you need to pick them up in put them in your closet until i doesn't Verb - Base Form with the Verb - Present ends in ING Noun shove them in your dresser. If you have any Noun you will need to get a plastic bag and put all the trash in there. Then you need a vaseed, if you can't find a vaseed you will need to go buy one. Once you are done Verb - Base Form it you put the Adjective away, then show your parents how clean your room is. If they found out that you actully didn't Verb - Base Form it they will probably ask you to Verb - Past Tense it the right way.
