

How They Meet

1. Noun
2. Noun
3. Verb
4. Adjective
5. Noun
6. Noun
7. Verb - Past Participle
8. Number
9. Proper Noun
10. Noun
11. Noun
12. Noun - Plural
13. Noun
14. Noun
15. Proper Noun
16. Noun
17. Verb - Present Tense
18. Noun
19. Noun
20. Verb
21. Adjective
22. Adverb
23. Number

24. Verb _____

25. Noun _____

26. Proper Noun _____

27. Proper Noun _____

28. Noun - Plural _____

29. Verb - Present Tense _____

30. Noun - Plural _____

31. Adverb _____

32. Number _____

How They Meet

It all started with one _____ Noun with captain's practice for _____ Noun when both Sam and Hilary were asked to _____ Verb the players. The students thought it _____ Adjective plan to play matchmaker. Sam decided to go with the flow and he removed his _____ Noun before dunking a _____ Noun in efforts to show off. Hilary was not _____ Verb - Past Participle and did not speak to him. Strike _____ Number for Sam. However, it was not over for Sam as they crossed paths on _____ Proper Noun at the American _____ Noun. Hilary was there with one of her _____ Noun _____ Noun - Plural and Sam was there with his _____ Noun. They started chatting over _____ Noun and soon realized they both loved Dumb & _____ Proper Noun and could quote the entire movie. Hilary extended an invitation to come to her _____ Noun to watch the movie. By the end of the night, it was Sam, Hilary and her friend watching/_____ Verb - Present Tense the movie. Sam and Hilary were both sitting on the _____ Noun and Hilary made sure there was a _____ Noun between them. Sam asked if she wanted to _____ Verb down and be _____ Adjective. Hilary she said _____ Adverb ! Strike _____ Number ! Over the next few weeks they began to _____ Verb each at _____ Noun games to watch _____ Proper Noun and _____ Proper Noun play! Sam and Hilary began to hang out "just as _____ Noun - Plural ". So, Sam decided to try again by _____ Verb - Present Tense down the school hallway if she wanted to go to _____ Noun - Plural with him. Hilary responded with a _____ Adverb. Strike _____ Number !