

Odyssey Lines 457-471

1. Adverb
2. Bodypart
3. Noun
4. Verb - Past Tense
5. Noun
6. Adjective
7. Adjective
8. Noun
9. Verb - Past Tense
10. Noun
11. Adverb
12. Noun
13. Noun
14. Verb - Present Ends In Ing

Odyssey Lines 457-471

_____ Adverb _____ his right hand plucked the string to test its pitch and under his _____ Bodypart _____ it sang clear and sharp as a swallow's cry. _____ Noun _____ swept the suitors, faces blanching white, and Zues _____ Verb - Past _____ Tense _____ the sky with a bolt, his blazing sign, and the great _____ Noun _____ who had borne so much rejoiced at last the son of _____ Adjective _____ Cronus flung that omen down for him. He snatched a _____ Adjective _____ arrow lying bare on the board- the rest still bristled deep inside the _____ Noun _____, soon to be _____ Verb - Past Tense _____ by all the feasters there. Setting shaft on the hadgrip, drawing the notch and bowstring back, back... right from his _____ Noun _____, just as he sat but aiming straight and _____ Adverb _____, he let it fly- and never missing an _____ Noun _____ from first ax-handle clean on through to the last and out the _____ Noun _____ with its weighted brazen head _____ Verb - Present ends in ING _____ free!