Project Management

1. Adjective _____

2. Noun _____

3. Verb - Base Form _____

4. Noun _____

5. Adjective _____

6. Noun _____

7. Verb - Base Form _____

8. Adjective _____

9. Noun _____

10. Verb - Base Form _____

11. Adjective _____

12. Noun _____

13. Adverb _____

14. Noun _____

15. Adjective _____

Project Management

Does this sound all too _____Adjective_____? It's a typical _____Noun_____, right? A day when everything just keeps _____Verb - Base Form_____ up on you. You have _____Noun_____ projects. Three of them are all in one product area and just so happen to start at the _____Adjective_____ _____Noun_____. There are three different Business Analysts that end up _____Verb - Base Form_____ the requirements meetings on the same days within a 1/2 hour from each other using the same Business SMEs. Based on _____Adjective_____ time frames, Business _____Noun_____ in two weeks, you _____Verb - Base Form_____ sort everything out today. If that wasn't enough. The developers on your fourth project have just sent out an email that have a _____Adjective_____ with a design element based some initial prototyping. Need to go back to architecture team. Your son's _____Noun_____ calls and informs you that he has a temperature of a 102 and needs to be picked up _____Adverb_____ and taken to urgent. Lastly, you have a Steering Committee _____Noun_____ next week and you found out your key sponsor needs to travel to a _____Adjective_____ customer next week so he wants to move the meeting up to Friday. Where's the EASY button when you need it!