Go _____ Number, it's yo Birthday!

We gon' celebrate like it's your birthday!!

And we don't give a _____ Verb - Base Form cuz it's yo birthday!!!

We just can't believe you are turning 56;

we honestly can't say you look a day over 30.

We can't believe after all these years you're still hoping to play.

You love to have fun.

You need to check yourself before you wreck yourself. W e hope you don't party too much and fall asleep in the chair with cake.

But if you need to stop someone,

you can always rely on good ol' Ward.

We hope this party didn't ware you out too much,

but we thought you were a person worth celebrating.

We appreciate the thoughts you give to each person in your life.

There

are so many people that love you,

so we invited them all here today.

There are short people,

crazy people,

and silly people.

And each one of them just like you.

You are so friendly like

the ghost.

You deserve to be treated like a star.

So wear your hair high and your smile big.

You are always helping others and making sure everyone around you is taken care of.

Now it is our turn to give back to you.

It's not riches or health,

or even a sugar daddy.

But hopefully it will bring a smile

to your face.

We

do have another big surprise for you to conclude this fun party.

We did our best and raised as much money as we could.

We hope you are happy.
