The bathroom incident

Yesterday, my son	Proper Noun	, who was only	Number	, had a bathroom in	cident and a very bad one at that. There was	Liquid	all over the floor, the	e walls and	even the ceiling! So	I brought him downstairs and	erb - Past Tense	his buttocks as	Adverb	as I possibly could	to make sure that he would never do it again.
The next day, I woke up to find my bed to be soaking wet and smelly. It turned out that my son had urinated all over the bed. Typical.	There was urine	e on the walls, on my	wife's	Noun , on the _	Noun and inside my	Gross! So th	nis time, I	Past Tense	his buttocks so har	d that he fell off my lap onto the floor,	Verb - Present ends in	in pain. "W	ell how self	fish," I bellowed to l	nim. "You have the guts to	in front of your	own Dad? You're a _	Noun	!". He carried on	crying. Clearly, I wasn't being forceful e	enough. I began	kicking him until his	Part of	Body went blue.	"That should do it," I Verb - Past Tense	to myself. Sudo	lenly, my wife came	in the room	n with a	and whacked me round the Part of Boo	dy with it.	Гhat was our marriag	ge over
